ORDINANCE VETOED.

After careful consideration and on petition of a majority of the members of the council, Mayor Mills has concluded to veto the "tax ferreting" ordinance. The REPUBLICAN believes that in so doing the mayor has acted wisely and that the people will sustain him. In taking this position we do not mean that taxables omitted should not be placed on the tax duplicate, for every man should pay his just proportion of taxes on all his property. But we do mean that it is unnecessary to pay 40 per cent. or even half that amount, as conditions now are in Jackson county, to place omitted taxables in the city of Seymour on the duplicate and collect the taxes thereon. Surely the officers in this city and county who have charge of the records and whose duty it is under the law to list all taxable property and collect taxes are not incompetent. It is a reflection on their capacity and ability as well as official honesty to employ "experts" to do this work unless there has been lodged against them some charge of unfaithfulness. We have no criticism of Messrs. Reynolds & O'Neal for wanting to make this contract for it would have brought them good returns for the time it would have taken them, but our contention is that the city would not be justified in paying that large a per cent to get this money due the city into the city treasury.

What are you doing for the street fair?

JOHN R. McLEAN has leased a house in Cincinnati and will move over from Washington City while he is making the race for governor. Ohio democrats have a reputation of running non-residents for office.

THE REPUBLICAN is pleased to report the coming of Bear Bros. to Seymour. In a few days they will be employing fifty or more people in the manufacture of clocks as reported in another column.

The democratic scrap in Shelby county is increasing in interest as well as in bitterness. The real fight seems to have just begun and George Ray, K. M. Hord, and Judge Hackney all have their swords unsheathed. Something is wrong when brethren fall out and call each other thieves.

SOMEONE has said that a few weeks ago Goebel and the Louisville police force held a convention and nominated a ticket, but the democrats of Kentucky would meet later. They met yesterday at Lexington and nominated a full ticket. Ex-Governor John Young Brown heads the ticket. His speech of acceptance was made to 1,500 enthusiastic people. The Goebel forces are in the field denouncing their opponents but the fight will be kept right up and the republican ticket will be elected.

THE TRIP TO WYANDOTTE.

An Interesting Account of the Journey Overland.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—So many of our friends have been asking about our trip to Wyandotte that we concluded that an account of it in your paper might interest your readers.

We made ready to start immediately after noon on Saturday Aug. 5, but were delayed until about 4 o'clock on account of rain. We took with us all necessary supplies, cooking utensils, tents, cots, etc., loaded in two covered wagons. We drove almost until dark the first evening, pitching our tents below Dudleytown, naming our camp "Camp Necessity." We built a rousing campfire and after supper spent the evening in singing and story-telling, retiring about 10 o'clock.

The next morning was cool and pleasant which was fortunate for our teams, as we had some very bad roads after crossing the Muscatatuck at Oldtown. We reached Little York about 1 p. m. and lunched and rested about an hour, then left for Henryville. The road here was the worst we found as a very heavy rain had fallen the night before which washed out culverts and otherwise damaged the roads. It was necessary for us to fill up washouts, build culverts and cut down some small trees in order to get through. We found some heavy grades also, so after reaching Leota decided to remain until morning and pitched our tents on a pretty knoll about 1/2 mile south of this place. We named our camp here "Camp Minor" in honor of a gentleman who showed us favors after our wearisome day's drive. Here again we had a campfire and a splendid camping place and passed a very comfortable night. On Monday morning we broke camp about six o'clock and were assisted over the knobs to Henryville by an extra team which we hired, so made very good time. The day was beautiful and the scenery fine. We arrived in Henryville about eleven o'clock, stopped to mail some letters, purchased a few supplies and proceeded about a mile where we stopped for dinner. Here we released our extra team and went on our way to New Albany, stopping at Memphis, Speeds, Sellersburg and from this last place had a fine road into New Albany arriving there at 7 p. m. Through the kindness of a Mr. Smith we were allowed to pitch our tents in a vacant lot right in the city and as a result had quite an audience of small boys who wondered what kind of a show we were going to give. Several of our party went over to Louisville and had some difficulty in finding their way back to camp as they neglected to inquire the name of the streets and could not ask where to be directed. The night was very cool here, perhaps caused partially by having no trees to protect us from the dew, and we were glad when the sun rose next morning, clear and warm.

We left New Albany at seven a. m. for Corydon over a fine pike and good weather. This road is also quite hilly but smooth and hard so made good time. We stopped at several places along the road to enjoy the scenery and to view the tunnel on the Air Line, which is seven-eighths of a mile long here, arriving in Corydon on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Here we received our first mail after leaving home and after reading the account of our departure from Seymour in the REPUBLICAN we left in a jolly mood for

Pabst Malt Extract
The Best Tonic

Is a wonderful aid in the maintenance of health; it is an easily assimilable form of nourishment in illness, and is invaluable in restoring shattered nerves and in convalescence. A doctor writes: "I have found it especially valuable for persons convalescing from fever, and for nursing mothers. I am highly pleased with it and my patients could not do without it."

At all Drug Stores

"Camp Lookout," located a half mile north-west of Corydon on the slope of a high hill and nicely situated. We had a rain storm that night but except for the scare was not serious. Had three patients, also, one quite seriously sick but improved by morning. Spent Wednesday in camp resting up from our long drive and on Wednesday night had quite a severe storm. There was thunder, lightning and rain, the water running through our tents in quite a stream. Thursday morning we hitched up and drove over to the Cave leaving our camp outfit at Camp Lookout. We found the roads from here to the Cave the roughest we had on the trip as they were made entirely of large unbroken rock, yet the fine scenery along this route served to keep our minds off the discomforts of the roads. We drove along creek beds, sometimes fording water axle deep as the creek was up somewhat after the rain of the previous night. Over Blue river we found a swinging foot bridge which looked so picturesque we could not help getting out and walking over it.

We arrived at the Cave about 11 a. m., ate a lunch and with our guide entered the cave at noon. We walked about eight miles through this wonderful cavern which must be seen to be appreciated and started back to camp about five thirty, arriving about 10 p. m.

We left Camp Lookout on Friday morning at 10 o'clock going into Corydon and after purchasing supplies and viewing the old state capitol building, the Constitutional Elm under which the constitution of the state was signed in 1816, left on our trip northward for "Camp Valley" located on the banks of a creek just outside New Salisbury. Here we had a very severe wind storm during the night, which frightened the ladies of the party considerably but did no damage. We left here at six a. m. Saturday without getting breakfast as we thought best to drive while it was cool, went through Palmyra, Hilo and arrived in Salem Saturday night at 9 o'clock. We had some difficulty here in finding a suitable camping place but through good fortune were referred to a man whose daughter is a particular friend of one of our boys, so were treated royally and shown many favors which we fully appreciated.

On Sunday we remained at Salem, seeing the city, which is indeed an attractive one. Their beautiful stone court house would make a good model when our court house is built. We left Salem Sunday evening for Millport and found this drive the most enjoyable of the whole trip as the roads and scenery were as fine as any we had seen in this section of country. The Millport hill which is reported a mile and a half long is all curves from top to bottom, one not finding a straight line a half square long.

We camped about five miles south of Valleria and had a quiet night, all reporting the best rest of the trip. We left for home at 8 o'clock stopping at Valleria and Brownstown on the way arriving in Seymour about 2 p. m. after an absence of nine days.

We could not help but notice the business look of our city as compared with all the other places visited and our citizens and farmers can be proud of the good market they have for buying their supplies and selling their produce, for we think our city is equal, if not superior to any of them.

For an outing we can all say a trip like ours is not to be excelled.

He Never Came Back.

Last Friday C. O. Robertson, the Ewing liveryman, hired a horse to a stranger to drive out to Houston, but he must have gone further for he is still out with the rig. Mr. Robertson says the horse and buggy is worth $125 and he offers $25 reward for their return.

STILLWELL'S PRELIMINARY

Judge Hoover Heard His Case
this afternoon.

The preliminary trial of Harry M.
Stillwell on the charge of grand larceny, is on trial before Judge Hoover
this afternoon. The story of Stillwell driving away with one of Allen S.
Crane's horses on August 5 has been previously told to the readers of the Republican so it need not be repeated now.

In the trial this afternoon the state was represented by Prosecutor Honan and the defendant by R. G. Miller of Bloomington. Allen S. Crane was put on the stand and told of hiring the horse to Stillwell, how long it was kept and the information that he had that led to the recovery of the horse and buggy. He also testified to the letters he had received from Stillwell.

Postmaster Wilhelm was on the stand to tell when the letter from Bloomington was received.

John Ridlen testified as to the information he got of Stillwell at Kurtz and other points. Jas. W. Lefevre, of Kurtz, with whom Stillwell stopped or dinner and to feed his horse the day he hired the horse testified.

The defense put W. A. Carter on the stand who told of his trip to Bloomington and the arrest of Stillwell.

The case was then argued, Honan speaking for the state and Miller for the defendant.

After hearing the evidence and argument Judge Hoover bound the defend-ent over to court in the sum of $300
which up to the time of going to press
he was unable to give.

From an Old Soldier

Knox, Ind., Jan. 14, 1897, Gents:—I have every confidence in recommending your Syrup of Pepsin.
I am 72 years of age and am broken down, the trouble having been brought on by my experience in the war. Your medicine has done me more good than a hundred doctors and I am just about well of stomach troubles.

Yours Truly,
JEFFERSON WILHELM.

MARRIED.

Last evening Theo. B. Elden and Mrs. Dora J. Honan, both of this city and well known, were united in marriage.

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hine, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after exposure induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundereds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at W. F. Peter's drug store.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for many years
and bear cheerful testimony to its value as a medicine which should be in every family. In coughs and colds we have found it to be efficient and in croup and whooping cough in children we deem it indispensable.—H. P.
RITTER, 4127 Fairfax ave., St. Louis Mo. For sale by C. W. Wilbous.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick, Hamilton,
of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation
was performed; but he cured himself
with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on Earth and the best salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by W. F. Peter's, druggists.
